Who will lead the preparation, and what training will the children be given?

What teaching materials will be used?

How will the children's nurture towards Confirmation continue after they have been admitted to Holy Communion?

Pastoral Matters

How will parents and Godparents be involved in the preparation of their children for Holy Communion?

What strategy do you have for families who do not wish for their children to be admitted to Holy Communion?

What strategy do you have for children who come to church without their parents?

What provision will be made for the nurture of children with learning difficulties who wish to receive Holy Communion?

How will children be involved and affirmed as members of the Christian Community: within the Eucharist?

in non-Eucharistic worship?

in social events?

The admission to Holy Communion Service

It is suggested that 'first communion' should be marked in some way appropriate to the life of the parish. Please give information about:

The Service (please attach details if possible)

The Certificate of Admission (An optional certificate is available from Diocesan House)

The Register (A copy of the above certificate can be kept as a register)
