

WORKPLACE CHAPLAINCY IN CORNWALL

Friday 21 October

10am till 4pm

Meeting at PROBUS near Truro

'FAITH AT WORK IN THE AGRICULTURAL COMMUNITY'

The day will include:

- Visits to local farms - including a Jersey herd, pigs & arable;
- Hear from the Cattle Market Chaplains & about the work of the Farm Community Network;
- An opportunity to meet the National Farmers representative & hear about the work of RIBA.

We will also be launching the Survey of Workplace Chaplaincy in Cornwall as part of a national project being undertaken by THEOS so please come and find out how you can be a part of this.

Please gather at Probus Church by 10am & bring a packed lunch. Drinks will be provided throughout the day.

Many thanks to Canon Andrew Wade for co-ordinating the programme.

To register: contact sue.thorold@truro.anglican.org /01872 274351

For more information about the Workplace Chaplaincy network contact:

Revd. Andrew Yates: andrew.yates@truro.anglican.org

Revd. Jill Edwards: jill.edwards@truro.anglican.org