HERE'S HOW IT WORKS...

SUNDAY ENTRIES

Sunday entries (left hand page) highlight certain aspects of church life or a national or global campaign. These are followed by suggestions for daily prayer.

ANGLICAN COMMUNION

The Anglican Communion encompasses a rich array of countries (165!) and cultures. This Anglican Diary enables us to feel connected in prayer to the Archbishops, Bishops and our fellow Christians all over the globe.

PRINT TO GO

The Prayer Diary is a booklet to be used daily. You can print off a week to a sheet of A4 and carry it with you.

NAMED PEOPLE

Some days are named people. These are people down the centuries who are champions of the faith and who we remember on these days.

ANY SUGGESTIONS?

This is a new format, suggestions and feedback welcome.

Specific prayer suggestions can be submitted by emailing info@truro.anglican.org

“ Our Archbishops of Canterbury and York have emphasised the importance of prayer in our Christian discipleship most recently through the introduction of the Thy Kingdom Come initiative.

As we begin a new phase in the prayer life of our diocese by relaunching the Prayer Diary it's good for us to think again about the nature of prayer and why it's important to us as we seek to grow in faith and service.

We can be left in no doubt that prayer is important. The gospels describe various occasions when Jesus not only teaches about prayer, but also takes time to pray himself. Throughout his ministry there are those times when Jesus seeks out opportunities to pray. At other times he teaches those around him of the importance of perseverance in prayer as well as the need to bring before our father in heaven all the things that are on our hearts and minds.

The aim of our Prayer Diary is to provide a helpful tool rather than any prescriptive structure. It offers a range of topics and themes which are intended to help us engage with the wider church and national and international concerns, as well as those things nearer to home. Its purpose is to encourage more people to engage with a cycle of prayer which we hope will deepen and broaden their own prayer life as well as being a resource for prayer groups and our wider church communities.

Let us pray. ”
